

1950

Hamming's paper: the first error-correcting codes

1 in 4.3 billion

random corruptions that slip past a 32-bit CRC

$72 = 64 + 8$

bits in every word of an ECC memory module

30%

of a QR code that can be lost at level H

≈ 2.5 mm

of CD track a scratch can cover and be corrected

64 states

in the $K = 7$ Viterbi decoder of Voyager and Wi-Fi

5.5 dB

gain of the $K = 7$ code
at a BER of 10^{-5}

≈ 8 h

radio round trip to Neptune: too long to ask